Putting Your Shared Branches to Work

What transactions can I perform at a Shared Branch?

Deposits	Withdrawals (maximum set by branch location)
Transfers	Transaction Histories (Last 10 transactions)
Loan Payments	Cashier's Checks (set by branch location if available)
Balance Inquiries	Money Orders (set by branch location if available)

Note: Since services vary from location to location, check with the individual branch before your visit for a complete list of available services. Funds availability may also vary between locations.

How can I find the nearest Shared Branch?

Go to co-opCreditUnions.org or visit the TCCU Locations & ATMs page to find all Shared Branches. Please note that TCCU does not participate in the CO-OP ATM network. ATMs at a Shared Branch may carry a service charge. Refer to our list of free ATMs when specifically looking for an ATM.

What is the difference between a Shared Branch and TCCU?

Policies at a Shared Branch may differ from those at TCCU, for instance: Length of check holds may vary; you will need to completely fill out transaction slips; valid identification is required at each visit; drive-thru is not always available to "Guest Members" at participating credit unions.

What do I need to bring with me to perform a transaction at a Shared Branch?

Valid photo ID with signature (Driver's License, Passport, Military ID); know your Credit Union name (Travis County Credit Union); know your account number.

Can check holds be released?

Yes, after reviewing the check, TCCU can decide whether or not to release the hold. Please contact us if you need your transaction reviewed.

Other Important Information:

If you have checks payable to your DBA, please verify with us that the account is set up in your business name first.

If you have a password on your account, the Shared Branch will not have access to that information and therefore will not ask for you to provide it.

If you have any alerts on your account (such as: Update Address), you will not be able to do any transactions at the Shared Branches until those have been take care of with us.

No third party checks will be accepted.

You may be able to do a cash advance at a Shared Branch, if they accept credit cards. In that instance, you may be subject to any fees or charges imposed by those Shared Branches.
